Mike Gilmore, PGA

Head Golf Professional

Winged Foot Golf Club

Mike Gilmore is 29 year member of the PGA of America having won Player of the Year honors in the Metropolitan Section as well as the Bill Strausbaugh Award in 2017. Mike is currently the head Professional at Winged Foot GC and has spent his career at some of the most prestigious clubs including Piping Rock, Wheatley Hills, and the Stanwich Club.

For the PGA Professionals of the Metropolitan Section, Mike Gilmore is a unique leader who sets an example for others to follow. He is a player, a teacher, and a mentor and takes prides in the successes of his students and his former mentees. His positions have not allowed him the time to serve on the leadership boards of the section but at every turn he is the first person to raise his hand to help the section and the Foundation in any capacity. In 2017 and 2018 Mike lead the way for Winged Foot to host the Regional Qualifier for the Drive, Chip, and Putt to make his club one last special stop before Augusta for best our area junior golfers.

Gilmore has competed in two PGA Championships (1999, 2002) and two U.S. Opens, the first in 1992 and the second in 2008 at Torrey Pines, and most recently in the 2016 US Senior Open. Other big victories include the 2000 Met Open, 2002 Met PGA Head Professional Championship, and the 2005 New York State PGA.
